

Well what can we say apart from a huge thank you to the children for what has been a fantastic term. They have been: scientists, archaeologists, writers, readers, historians and active learners and are looking forward to next term.

Our English learning has been based around The Iron Man by Ted Hughes. The children have really enjoyed their learning and ended it by making their very own Class Iron Giant.

Happy holidays Year 3

